

THE HAYTI HERALD

VOL. 6.

HAYTI, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1914.

NO. 42.

Aged Lady Passes Away.

P. S. Ravenstein received a telegram Sunday night, announcing the death of his mother at Mt. Carmel, Ill., and left that night to attend the funeral. We understand also that his father is very low.

We take the following from the Mt. Carmel, Illinois, Register of August 24:

"Mrs. Cynthia Ravenstein, one of the old residents of the city, passed away at her home at the corner of Fourth and Pear street Sunday afternoon at 5:40 o'clock.

"Cynthia Catherine Ravenstein, oldest daughter of George W. and Mary A. Lingenfelter Rigg was born about a mile north of Mt. Carmel, July 5th, 1843.

"She was converted at an early age, when church was held in the old Simonds school house, previous to the erection of Asburg Chapel, for which her father gave the land.

"She was married to John Rounding, Dec. 4th, 1859. To this union one child, Mary A. was born. She was killed by a cyclone at Altoona, S. Dak., in 1883. Mr. Rounding was seriously wounded in the battle of Pittsburg Landing and died April 20th, 1862.

"She was married to Joachim Ravenstein in August 1865. To this union seven children were born, Geo. W. and John F., who reside near Belmont; Peter S. of Hayti, Mo., and Mrs. Mary Kimbrel, who resides with her parents, and Dora, Belle, James and Thomas H., who died several years ago.

"Mrs. Ravenstein had been sick for quite awhile and though her death was not unexpected, it was very sudden, as she had seemed better on Sunday. But the end came suddenly at 5:40 Sunday evening.

"Funeral services will be held from the Evangelic church Tuesday at 2:30 p. m."

Lee Shelton of Kennett, the well known Dunklin county capitalist, was here Thursday night, on his way to St. Louis, to see what he could learn and do relative to handling the immense cotton crop of his county.

While grinding sausage in the Crest butcher shop Sunday, John Chism entrusted his finger a little too far into the iron jaws of the machine, and now it has one joint less and is neatly done up in a bandage.

Frank Draper of Houston, Texas, baggage man of the Santa Fe railroad at that place, visited Walter Schilling this week.

Otto Kassel was called to Cape Girardeau Thursday to attend the bedside of his mother who was ill, but was sufficiently recovered to permit him to return home.

Pete Edwards, one of the good farmers from Fourteen Bend, was trading in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Mamie Dunn and little son, Jim T., left Tuesday on a visit to relatives and friends at Lutesville.

The Chautauqua advertised at New Madrid for the 20th, has been postponed until next year.

O. McCain and family moved to their new home on Opal avenue and Violet street Monday.

Thos. Lester of Fourteen Bend was trading in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Ransburgh and children visited in Clarkton and Malden the first of the week.

Wofford Gordon of Chaffee is in Hayti this week.

Judge Tom Nicholas of Dunklin county was here Thursday night.

Paul Wright returned Saturday from a several weeks' visit with his parents at Heber Springs, Ark.

Miss Hattie Mae Argo returned from Kennett last Thursday after several days visit.

Sheriff Stubblefield was over from Caruthersville Tuesday.

T. C. Scott, the pole and piling man, was here from Clay Root yesterday.

D. Galbreath, the Senath jeweler, was here Sunday.

John Morgan, one of the good farmers of Braggadocio, was here last week buying lumber for the erection of a handsome new residence on his farm, for himself and family, and hopes to have the building completed before winter. It will be one of the best and most handsome residences in Braggadocio neighborhood.

E. S. Berry, commercial manager of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company, who makes his headquarters, Caruthersville, has tendered his resignation, to take effect September 1. He is a good man and has many friends, and it will be difficult to get a man who will fill his position with the universal satisfaction he has given.

Louis Patterson, local manager of our telephone system, has tendered his resignation, to take effect September 1. He owns his home in Caruthersville, and tells us he will likely return to that city. Louis is a good citizen and we regret to lose him.

The vacancy on the board of health caused by the death of Dr. J. G. Crider has not up to this time been filled, and, as there should at all times be a full board to cope with an emergency that might arise, we feel like the vacancy should be filled.

It is said that the Deering mills will shut down September 1, and that in view of this fact many people are now leaving and preparing to leave that place. It is said also that the Deering and Southwestern Railway may take off its trains.

The W. A. Samford property at Holland was sold at a trustee's sale a few days ago, and was bought in by W. A. Gage & Co. of Memphis, the holder of the trust deed, and was later resold by them to Mrs. Linda Samford.

Dr. T. J. Trautmann left for St. Louis Tuesday morning, and little Misses Penny and Minnie Belle Oates of Cape Girardeau, who have been visiting in this city for some time, accompanied him on their return home.

E. D. Johnson, the Malden marble man, was here yesterday, looking after business matters. He has closed a contract with Mrs. Jennie Ransburgh for her deceased husband, and also with the W. O. W. for Edgar Nunn.

The matter of restraining hogs from running at large in Cape Girardeau county was ordered submitted to the voters at the general election in November.

Mrs. John Scott of this city and her guest, Miss Pauline O'Brien of Kennett, attended the Chautauqua at Caruthersville Friday.

Hare & Dunham of Kennett have opened a branch photograph gallery in this city, having erected a tent on the west side of the square. Their sign reads "high-class photos," and they certainly have some beautiful samples.

Moxie Mangel, one of the progressive merchants of Pascola and well known base ball player, attended to business in this city Monday.

D. L. Sorrell, the king of the Pemiscot county sorghum growers, started his evaporator to work on this season's crop yesterday.

Duke Russell, who has been taking treatment in a hospital in St. Louis for some time, has returned to his home.

Morgan Warth was looking after business matters in Portageville Friday and Saturday and at Caruthersville Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Handsfire and baby are on an extended visit to relatives and friends at Wolf Creek, Ky., and Cape Sandy, Ind.

Miss Mamie West of Chaffee is here on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Morgan Warth and family.

Barnie Jones of Kennett was here Thursday night.

Miss Mary Gordon of Chaffee was Miss Nellie Hayes' guest from Friday until Saturday.

Don J. Wilson and Amos Taylor were Caruthersville visitors Sunday night.

Harry Gengenbach of Concord was in town Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Goad and children left Sunday to visit in Kennett and Holcomb.

C. C. Ashley, the electrician, is a new Herald reader.

Mrs. Logan Taylor of Malden, visited Mrs. D. B. Hayes last Thursday.

Hayti School Faculty, 1914.

The Hayti schools open September 7, with the following instructors:

Room I. Miss Letitia McFarland, Hayti.

Room II. Miss Marguerite Dover, Sikeston.

Room III. Miss Flora Winters, Marble Hill.

Room IV. Miss Blanche Cook, Dexter.

Room V. Miss Ruth Hill, Fulton.

Room VI. Miss Jessie Hill, Fulton.

Room VII. Miss Verna Welborn, Cape Girardeau.

Room VIII. W. H. Johnson, superintendent, Hayti.

The 1913-14 term of school was the best and most successful ever taught in Hayti, and let us hope that the 1914-15 term will see a still further advancement, which it will be if directors, patrons and pupils can work together with the same good feeling.

John Duncan, the well known Caruthersville lawyer, was in this city Friday afternoon. John made his start in the legal profession in this city, and has many friends here who are always glad to see him.

Bob Easley, the new bar tender at the Scott & Morgan saloon, moved his family over from Caruthersville last Thursday. They are occupying the J. L. Dorris residence on Ruby avenue and Violet street.

Esq. A. F. Parker came down from Portageville Tuesday to spend a few days, and placed his name upon our honor roll.

The official vote in this district for congressman, at the primary election August 4, was: Russell, 13,141; Ward, 9,580.

Mrs. Tom Curtner went up to Cairo, Illinois, Saturday, and returned Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Myers and little daughter returned from a most enjoyable visit with Mrs. Clyde Dillman at Senath Wednesday.

J. A. Chanley is a new Herald reader.

Judge E. L. Davis, one of the large land owners of Braggadocio, is spending some of the hot summer months in Canada, and has sent us several Montreal papers. At first we did not know the Judge was in Canada, but as soon as we learned, we took pains to see that the Herald reached him.

Joe Foust, one of the leading farmers, and Harry Henderson, the leading merchant of Concord, were here Tuesday, looking for something that would throw some light on the cotton situation. Cotton is now ready to pick, and they are very anxious to know what steps to take to finance the crop.

John Beacham and wife and Mrs. Beacham's aunt, Mrs. Fannie Lyons, of Hornbeak, Tenn., came over Saturday, on a visit to Mrs. Beacham's brother, John Fields and family. Mr. Beacham is thinking of locating here, if he can find a farm that suits him.

While placing bottles of soda water in an ice chest in the Crest restaurant Saturday night, Guy Settle's hand was painfully cut and lacerated by the explosion of a bottle. He went to Cape Girardeau for surgical treatment. His hand is still in a bad condition.

The operator at the Dorris Theatre needs to have little fear of the hereafter, for while his audience is leisurely enjoying the pictures under the cooling breath of myriads of electric fans, he is incessantly cranking his machine in a temperature of 119 degrees.

Mrs. Lena Graham, Pearl Gaskins and Ada Bridges attended the Chautauqua at Caruthersville Sunday night.

Chas. Warth of Portageville visited his brother, Morgan, in this city, from Saturday until Tuesday.

Miss Violet Hayes attended the Chautauqua at Caruthersville Sunday night.

Lee Hurley of Black Island transacted business in this city Saturday.

Leonard Sprinkle of Kennett is visiting relatives and friends in this city, and informs us that on account of the saw mills and factories shutting down in Kennett, he may remain over here for quite awhile.

Pete Robertson of Deering has gone into the stock raising business, and has fenced several sections of the Wisconsin Lumber Company lands for grazing purposes.

J. W. Conklin of New York City, an old class-mate of Don J. Wilson, but who is now traveling for a dry goods firm, while at Cairo last week learned that Don J. was located in Hayti, and came down to pay him a visit.

Hiram Englert, of St. Louis, and a kinsman of H. Lingeman of near this city, died a few days ago, and Mr. Lingeman informs us that Mrs. Englert will come here to live.

WAR! WAR! BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1914

The Battle of Gettysburg was fought July 1, 2 and 3, 1863, one of the decisive battles of the Civil War. The Union army of 80,000 men and 160 cannons under the command of Generals Meade, Hooper and Hancock attacked and defeated the Confederate army of like number and 80 cannons under the command of Gen. Robert E. Lee on Round Top and Cemetery Hill; the battle line extending a distance of 25 miles. The Union lost 23,187 and the Confederates lost 18,000, and 13,600 prisoners captured by the Union army.

In connection with the Battle of Gettysburg we will show the usual 3 reels, making a total of 5 reels for

TEN AND FIFTEEN CENTS

5 REEL FEATURE 5

DORRIS THEATRE

Daniel O'Connell—"The Liberator"

LD ERIN has given the world many a genius and many a Lover of Liberty, but none greater than the eloquent O'Connell. This noble Irishman unselfishly devoted every moment of his life to regain the Freedom of his Fatherland. His oratory, because of its flaming earnestness, exercised a powerful influence over the House of Commons and hastened many reforms for Ireland. Daniel O'Connell was the first to realize the irresistible strength of a union of millions of Irishmen, and to this end he labored night and day. Huge mass meetings were everywhere organized throughout Ireland and addressed by the masterful O'Connell. When confident of success and with victory in sight he was arrested and condemned to prison. When liberated his splendid constitution was shattered, but he continued until his dying hour to work and pray for Irish Liberty. It is needless to say that Daniel O'Connell was opposed to any Prohibitory legislation which invaded the Natural Rights of Man. He would no more vote for such tyrannous enactments than will our millions of Irish-American citizens. They know that there is no evil in the barley brews and light wines of their fathers—EVIL ONLY IS IN THE MAN WHO MISUSES THEM. For 57 years Anheuser-Busch have honestly brewed honest beers, and they are proud of the popularity their great brand Budweiser enjoys with those of Irish blood. Our Irish citizens have helped to make our nation great among the nations of the world. Seven thousand, five hundred people are daily required to keep pace with the natural demand for Budweiser.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH • ST. LOUIS, U.S.A.

J. H. Elder

Distributor

Caruthersville, Mo.

Budweiser

Means Moderation

